

Welcome to issue 4 of
"The Shelfie"!
In this issue we have some reading ideas for upper KS3 and KS4.

Calling all Year 9s!

Have you seen the announcement posted on Class Charts about the book we are all going to read?

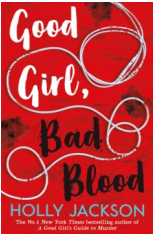

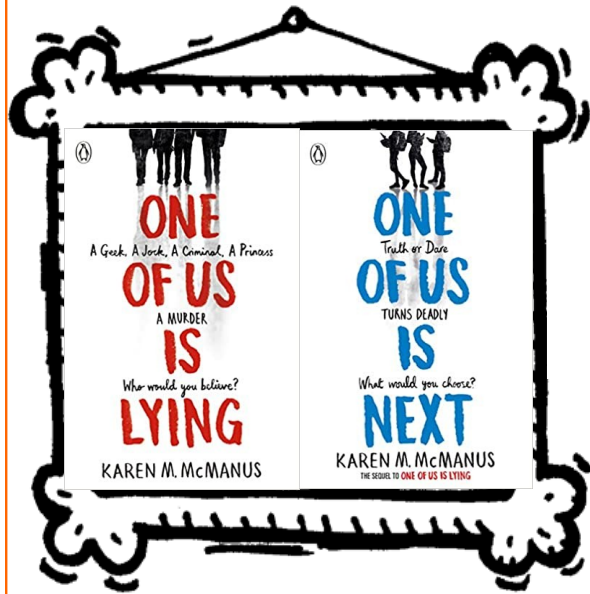

Dates for your diary:

Authorfy on Twitter (@authorfy) are posting 10 minute creative writing challenges every day.

Check out @DerekLandy (he of "Skullduggery" fame) on Thursday 30th and on Friday 1st May @HoJoy92 where the author of "A Good Girl's Guide to Murder" chats about her new book "Good Girl, Bad Blood".

Books of the Week

Website of the Week

Poynter.org/coronavirusfactsalliance

This website fact-checks the many hoaxes that are appearing on the internet about this virus. It gives a good insight into how "fake news" is spread.

These are no ordinary 'whodunnits' by Karen McManus. They will keep you guessing to the very, very end. Both AR level 5.

Books for isolation... you are not alone!

Ready Player One

Wade has real problems, no family, no friends, and lives on his own. He takes online gaming to a whole new level. AR 6.7 (23 PTS). Free on Libby.

Five Feet Apart

Two teens fall in love - just one problem, they can't get within 5 feet of each other, without risking their lives. AR 5.1 (9 PTS). Free on Libby.

Shh...

I'm self-isolating
