

Sixth Form Horizons Bulletin 7th July 2026

Develop your supercurricular interests (supercurricular = academic interests beyond the classroom)

Not only is developing your academic interests one of the best things you can be doing to make yourself as competitive as possible as a job or university applicant, but it's a very good thing to do for its own sake! You can register for a variety of 'explorations' designed by Gonville & Caius College, Cambridge, on your own or with a partner. See the full list of choices here.

Work experience with local charity Seachange at the Exmouth Festival

Seachange is a health and well-being charity in Budleigh Salterton. They promote health, happiness, connection and care for all in the Woodbury, Exmouth and Budleigh Salterton areas and surrounding villages. They are looking for volunteers to help run their stand at the Exmouth Festival at the Imperial Hotel Gardens site on both 11 and 12 July.

At their stand there will be a Spin the Wheel game with prizes supplied from local businesses and a 'Sit to Stand chair challenge'. You could help in running one of these activities. As well as getting experience of practising your communication skills while talking to diverse members of the public, you will learn to cooperate with others in a professional situation. Food and drink provided! More details from Dr Davies.
