Purpose of the policy

This policy details how Exmouth Community College deals with an emergency evacuation of the exam room(s) by defining staff roles and responsibilities and confirming the emergency evacuation procedure.

When is an emergency evacuation required?

An emergency evacuation is required where it is unsafe for candidates to remain in the exam room. This might include a fire in the exam room, the fire alarm sounding to warn of fire, bomb alert or other serious threat.

In exceptional situations, where candidates might be severely disadvantaged or distressed by remaining in the exam room, the emergency evacuation procedure may also need to be followed. This might include situations where there is severe disruption in the exam room, serious illness of a candidate or invigilator or similarly serious incidents.

As each incident may be different, advice will be sought from the relevant awarding body as soon as it is safe to do so, particularly where the centre is concerned about the security of the examination(s). ICE 25.4)

Where candidates are unable to return to the building to complete the examination, the relevant awarding body will be contacted immediately for advice. The awarding bodies have procedures in place to ensure that candidates are not disadvantaged where they are unable to complete the examination due to circumstances beyond their control. (ICE 24.5)

Emergency evacuation procedure

Invigilators are trained in this procedure and understand the actions they must take in the event of a fire alarm or other emergency that leads to an evacuation of the exam room.

Emergency evacuation procedure
Actions to be taken (as detailed in the current JCQ Instructions for conducting examinations section 25, Emergencies )
Stop the candidates from writing
Collect the attendance register/seating plan (in order to ensure all candidates are present)
Evacuate the examination room in line with the instructions given by the appropriate authority
Advise candidates to close their answer booklet and leave all question papers and scripts in the examination room
Candidates should leave the room in silence
Make sure that the candidates are supervised as closely as possible while they are out of the examination room to make sure there is no discussion about the examination
Make a note of the time of the interruption and how long it lasted.
Allow the candidates the remainder of the working time set for the examination once it resumes.
If there are only a few candidates, consider the possibility of taking the candidates (with question papers and scripts) to another place to finish the examination. Candidates must be given the opportunity to sit the examination for its published duration.
Make a full report of the incident and of the action taken, and send to the relevant awarding body
Additional centre-specific actions to be taken
In the event of a fire alarm, evacuate the exam room immediately
In the main exam halls the lead Invigilator will direct the evacuation. Invigilators will be responsible for evacuating the rows that they have been allocated. They will need to have their copy of the seating plan so that they are able to take a register and account for each student.
Escort candidates to the fire assembly point in the Coach Park (for Green Close) and Astroturf (for Gipsy Lane)
When/if allowed to return to the exam room, allow candidates time to settle down, reminding them they are still under exam conditions.
Restart the exam and allow candidates the remaining time for the exam.
Make relevant changes to the exam finishing time.
Record as much detail as possible on the exam room incident log and ensure that the Exams Officer is fully briefed at the end of the exam to enable a full report to be submitted to the awarding body.

Where not allowed to return to the exam room, or the decision is made that the exam must be abandoned, the centre's exam contingency plan will be implemented and all staff will be briefed accordingly.
